Have YOU ever bowled a 600 series?

JOIN THE ORANGE COUNTY 600 CLUB!!!!!!!

- ❖ How do I become a 600 Club Member?
It's easy. Bowl a 600 series in a USBC certified league or tournament and fill out the membership form provided.
- ❖ What kind of tournaments do you have?
We have six tournaments a year. Tournaments include the Mystery Doubles, an Invitational with other 600 Clubs (and you may invite a friend); Christmas tournament and banquet (which we also sponsor the Women's Transitional Living Center for battered women); Friendship bowled throughout Southern Cal (winning 600 club host, following year); Anchorman Trio (2 Women & 1 Male guest) and other assorted Fun tournaments throughout the year. The tournaments are held at various bowling centers throughout the Orange County area.
- ❖ Why do I have to join the National and State 600 Clubs before I join the OC 600 Club?
USBC is the governing body of all certified leagues and tournaments. National 600 Bowling Club governs all State and local 600 Clubs. You pay a one-time fee for both the National and California State 600 Clubs. You are then a lifetime member of both clubs. Once you are a lifetime member you then are eligible to bowl the 600 National and California State tournaments (See membership fees on form.)
- ❖ Your membership Package will include:
  1. Welcome Letter
  2. Membership Card and Lapel Pin
  3. Listing of current Orange County 600 club Board of Directors
  4. Orange County 600 club By-Laws
- ❖ Do I wear a Uniform when bowling in the Orange County 600 Club tournaments?
Yes. The official uniform is the Orange County 600 Club shirt along with black pants, skirt, culottes or shorts. You purchase the shirt for $30.00 from the Secretary of the Orange County 600 Club upon joining. The cost of the shirt includes your name embroidered at no extra charge.
